News Letter

Tuesday, June 15th, 2010

Tonight's meeting started with a dinner of spinach salad, roast pork and mashed potatoes. Desert was a delicious banana crème pie.

The guests attending the meeting tonight included our exchange student Sowarit, along with Stephanie Seidner and our returning exchange student Elena Coleman.

The 50/50 was won by Bob Law. Bob pulled in $11. Rumor has it Ed Hourigan only put in $1 into the pot.

Announcements:

Last Wednesday, members of our club attended the Peak Center event where they presented a check for $5000 to the Peak Center.

Tonight Hans Peckman announced the campers who will be our guests this year at Camp Niedig. The camp starts this Friday.

Next week there will be a vote to elect Bob Law and Jayson Schmidt to the Board of Directors for the 2011-2013 term.

Program:

Tonight Elena Coleman spoke to us about her experience as an exchange student in Ecuador this past year. She explained that it was one of the best experiences of her life. Her presentation included some great power point pictures of the families she stayed with, the friends that she met and the towns where she stayed. She explained that it was a little tough adjusting at first to her new life and country. After a few months, she grew accustomed to her new life and began to love it. It was interesting to hear about the food, the traditions, the schools, and just how more laid back the culture is compared to our American fast paced lifestyle. Her enthusiasm for this experience spoke volumes. She thanked us many times for this opportunity. It truly makes one realize the impact of this type of wonderful experience for a young person.

That's all for now.

Terrible Tom

Member Update: You all remember Nick Sabokbar. As all of you have probably noticed, Nick hasn't been with us in a while. He is recovering from Knee Surgery and doing just fine. He is ready to take on, and beat, any member that thinks their a Ping Pong player!
Get well soon Nick!

*If anyone has info on members we've not seen in a while, let me know! -President Karl

A Note from "The Board"

We regret to inform you, but after 10 years without an increase in dues, we are increasing our semi-annual dues to $65 starting July 1st!

* SEE YOU ALL NEXT WEEK ****
