ROTARY MEETING JULY 20, 2010

We had two visiting Rotarians this week, Roy Klein from Mays Landing and our speaker Evan Fineman from the Southampton club. We also had two prospective members join us, Annaliese Kunze and Dennis Halterman were the guest of Larry Moyer.

Dinner included a wedge salad and a turkey & noodles entrée.

The top and only prize in the 50/50 this week ($16) was won by Sam Dugan.

Program:

Rotarian Evan Fineman of Padgett Business Services of Blue Bell was our speaker.
The topic: profitability in the business place.

Many small to medium size businesses may experience a variety of problems that can contribute to business success or failure. They include:

Making decisions without all the necessary information.

Knowing how to run a company and realizing how much of your own effort it will take to make the company a success.

Understanding that you need to sell a product or service that someone wants to purchase.

Being undercapitalized to start.

Timing the marketplace successfully.

Many issues go into making a business profitable. It's important to look at all price models and costs, analyze fixed costs, differentiating your business from your competitors, reviewing staff efficiencies, and pre-determining how to measure results.

It was a very informative program and considering the economic climate that we are experiencing, very topical.

Other news:

A check was received from TD Bank...the title sponsor of Lansdale Day...thank you!

Mark your calendar for September 10, 2010. That's the date of the North Penn Rotary – North Penn YMCA golf outing. It begins at 9 am at Lederach Golf Club.
