News & Letter

Rotary Meeting
Tuesday, January 24th, 2012

The North Penn Rotary Club
"Service Above Self"

50/50: Mike Seidner won a whopping $10. I must add upon hearing the amount, he declared that $10 wasn't worth winning. Once he won and the money was in his hand, I believe he changed his mind.

Guests and Visiting Rotarians: Bud Moats from Harleysville and Hazel Hartman.

Announcements: One of our newest members, John Coker, has taken a new job at the Easton Hospital and will be transferring to the Easton Club. He will certainly be missed. Not much else for announcements this evening.

Program: Tonight's program was a no show, but Paul Hartman stepped up to the plate and delivered a first rate speech that detailed his time at Penn State as a cheerleader (yes, all cheerleaders were male back then). He talked a bit about his family and two grandsons who recently graduated from college. One majored in math and engineering and took a job with an aerospace company. The other majored in psychology and took a job as a dealer in a Casino in Delaware. Guess who is making more money? The dealer always wins. At ninety-three years old, Paul is the picture of health and more importantly, a pleasure to talk to and be around. Same goes for Hazel—not the ninety-three part. With that the meeting ended early.

See you next week!!!

The Honorable Bone Crusher
